

Actor's Head Shots -

Can be created almost instantaneously, whether you are looking for a general image, or wish to convey a very specific mood for a very specific character or existing part.

The shooting, editing, re-shoot and fine-tuning to get the exact look that you want, plus your image on a finished print, along with your image file on a reproducible CD - ready to go for that special interview or to reproduce exactly to send out for all those parts that you can definitely play the role of - can all be created within one session - an amazing production time to capture that once in a lifetime chance at scoring the part -

Photographs: Copyright: Walter Paul Bebirian

575488trillion.com